

United Christian Ministries

Located in the Good Samaritan Alliance building
303 Dacusville Hwy. Easley, SC 29640
864-671-1134

United Christian Ministries (UCM) is an interdenominational ministry that provides emergency assistance to people in need in Pickens County & the area of northern Anderson County known as Powdersville. UCM is supported by churches & church groups, civic groups, businesses, United Way, & many individuals. UCM works in cooperation with Clemson Community Care which provides similar services to residents of Central & Clemson therefore UCM does not serve residents of Central or Clemson.

United Christian Ministries offers the following types of help:

- 1) emergency food assistance
- 2) emergency utility assistance (electric, heat, water)
- 3) emergency clothing assistance
- 4) emergency rent assistance
- 5) assistance with some life-sustaining medications
- 6) SNAP application assistance

To receive assistance, you must bring the following EACH time you come:

- 1) Valid Social Security Cards for all persons in the home
- 2) Proof of Income for all persons in your home
(examples: paycheck stubs, Bank Statement, DSS Benefit Statement if you receive SNAP Benefits or Family Independence, Social Security Award Letter; proof of Unemployment Income, etc.)
- 3) Valid Picture ID
- 4) Proof of Need for Financial Assistance services
(examples: for rent, a past due notice from landlord; for electricity, water, or heat bring most recent bill or a past due notice from utility company)

Ministry Hours: Mon., Wed., & Fri. 9:00am to 12 noon

Please arrive early so you may be interviewed & served prior to our closing at noon.

www.ucmpc.org